

Chace Monroe Washington

Chace Washington is a sophomore at Shenandoah Conservatory, Winchester, VA, BM degree anticipated year 2020 in Music Production Recording Technology and Jazz

Studies emphasis with an anticipated MS in Performing Arts and Leadership Management. He previously studied percussion and jazz at Duke Ellington School of the Arts under the tutelage of international jazz legend, Davey Yarborough.

He showcased his own original piece at the Washington National Cathedral for its 2014 Martin Luther King Day Celebration. He has performed on stage at the Kennedy Center with Grammy nominated singer Ledisi and Grammy Nominated Three Mo' Tenors, and received the 2016 Outstanding Jazz Soloist Award from the Walt Disney World Resort during Festival Disney.

During his time at Shenandoah Conservatory, He has performed in many venues and churches all over the Winchester Area and has performed with many groups such as the Sweet Nola's Po' Boys, and Bees? jazz-fusion and rock band and currently studies Jazz percussion under Alphonso Young. He has done multiple live recordings for many students, faculty and staff at the conservatory, as well as done many audio engineering projects outside of the school and is a current live sound engineer for his home church in Maryland.